Increase in Cotton Procurement Prices

2107. DR. BAPU KALDATE: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that cotton prices have been continuously falling;

(b) whether the cotton growers have urged Government to enhance the procurement price;

(c) whether Government have created a buffer stock of 2 lakh bales of short and medium staple varieties through imports; and

(d) if so, what are the reasons for this import?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI CHANDULAL CHANDRAKAR): (a) In recent months, cotton prices at different centres have shown a mixed trend. However, due to bumper crop, cotton prices during 1984-85 are lower compared to the high prices prevailing during 1983-84 when the cotton production was low.

(b) So far the Government have not received any request either from cotton growers or their association regarding enhancement in the support prices of cotton.

(c) and (d) Keeping in view the demand-supply situation of different varieties of cotton, Government decided to import one lakh bales of short and medium varieties of cotton through Cotton Corporation of India on National Textile Corporation's account in order to stabilise prices.
